Laura Weeks, MBA, CHC

Corporate Compliance Officer

Bayhealth Medical Center

Dover, DE

Referral Source Payments: Paper to Electronic Time Sheets — The Good, The Bad, & The Ugly

Laura's interactive discussion will highlight her journey in managing referral source payments. She will discuss what went well and what she wishes she knew before starting her electronic invoicing initiative. Laura wants you to walk away with information that will make your journey as smooth as possible.

Laura is the Corporate Compliance Officer for Bayhealth Medical Center, Central and Southern Delaware's largest healthcare system, which includes Kent General and Milford Memorial hospitals, a freestanding Emergency Department in Smyrna, and numerous satellite facilities and employed physician practices. Her 13 years of healthcare experience includes more than five years of planning and implementing organizational corporate compliance activities. She is well-versed in the Stark Law and Federal Anti-Kickback Statute, as well as conflict of interest and physician compensation.

Bill Donato

General Manager
MD Buyline
Dallas, TX

Designing the Healthcare Supply Chain Organization

Rising costs, organizational commitments, and financial performance are placing pressure on providers to reduce non-labor expenses. Bill will discuss what to consider when designing your organization to overdeliver on your business plan commitments.

Bill is the General Manager of MD Buyline. He has held several strategic senior executive positions in the healthcare industry, including Chief of Supply Chain at the Cleveland Clinic. Bill is also the past president of the Association for Healthcare Resource & Materials Management (AHRMM). He received the George R. Gossett Leadership Award in 1996.
